Santa Ana, CA (Feb 12, 2010) – NIS America is excited to announce today its plans to release Japanese anime titles to North America beginning mid 2010. As an entertainment publisher NIS America has focused on releasing video games; however, with the growing demand for Japanese pop culture, NIS America will provide quality anime contents along side with video games. Initially a selected number of titles will be released on a scheduled basis and will expand its offerings over time. Like its video game offerings, anime titles will be available with collector's items. The first 4 anime titles that are planned for releases are "Toradora!", "PERSONA –trinity soul–", "PandoraHearts", "Our Home's Fox Deity". Release dates and pricing will be announced soon.
